Latino Democratic Club of Montgomery County Announces Endorsements for Primary Elections on May 14th, 2024.

Montgomery County, MD – The Latino Democratic Club of Montgomery County is proud to announce its official endorsements for the upcoming primary elections scheduled for May 14th, 2024. These endorsements reflect the club's commitment to supporting candidates who champion the values and priorities of the Latino community in Montgomery County.

After a thorough review and deliberation process, including a candidates' forum, independent endorsement committee review of questionnaires, a members' vote held on April 25th, 2024, the following candidates have been endorsed for their respective races:

Joe Biden - President

David Trone - U.S. Senate

Jamie Raskin – Congressional District 8

Joe Vogel – Congressional District 6

Rita Montoya – Board of Education At-Large

Natalie Zimmerman – Board of Education District 2

Shebra Evans – Board of Education District 4

The Latino Democratic Club of Montgomery County believes that these candidates are best suited to address the critical issues facing our community, such as education, healthcare, immigration reform, equity, the fentanyl crisis, and more. Each candidate has demonstrated a clear commitment to working alongside and for our community, advocating for policies that promote inclusivity, equality, and prosperity.

"Our endorsements are a testament to our rigorous selection process and our dedication to the democratic values we hold dear," said Omar Lazo, President of the Latino Democratic Club of Montgomery County. "We encourage all members of our community to participate in the upcoming primary elections. Tu Voto es tu Voz! (Your vote is your voice), and it is more important than ever to make that voice heard."

The Latino Democratic Club of Montgomery County invites all community members to join us in supporting these candidates who have shown unwavering dedication to our community's needs and aspirations. Let us come together to vote during early voting which starts on May 2nd, or on primary election day on May 14th. Help us shape a brighter future for Montgomery County.
